eNews 21st July 2017 No 37

Hi Everyone, you must have been wondering where I have been since it is a month and a half since the last newsletter. A short holiday on the Gold Coast where it poured with rain so if you want to play tennis - Hobart is the place.

Not a great deal to report however we had the AGM on the 6th June where we said a big thank you to last years committee and welcomed a fantastic bakers dozen for the coming year. Mike Hass has retired while Caroline McCormack with Mark and family have moved to the UK. We will miss both but welcome Harry Crowe and Mark Woolley to the committee.

The annual report, if you have not had a chance to see is on the website at www.sunshinetennisclub.org.au/

In this issue you will find important information on the coming AYC competition including when grading nights are scheduled so continue reading!!

Full details are available from Max Crowe 0438 447 259

Max is also looking for new or old AYC players for the coming pennant commencing 11th September. If you haven't got a grading three nights are being made available

Thursday 27th July at Geilston Bay,

Tuesday 1st August at Kingston and

Wednesday 2nd August at Glenorchy

It would be great to see more of our members playing the comp so again ring Max on 0438 447 259 as he is anxious to get a large contingent of Sunshine players. If you cannot play for the whole pennant put your name down as an emergency as it can be difficult for one to be available every week so if each team can have a pool of players all the better.

A reminder Dickson Tennis (David and Kat) are readily available for tennis lessons with Kat starting up a Fitness Class on a Wednesday evening and also will be starting Swing Fit on a Saturday afternoon commencing Saturday 9th September.

Also it is an innovative health, fitness and skill development program, which has socialisation, conditioning and games based learning at its core!!! This is not just for people wanting to learn golf but it is a lot of fun - ring Kat for more information on 0412 817 427

SOCIAL SCENE

Please remember I am always looking for content for this newsletter and in the absence of any other group info I am once again forced to feature the Tuesday/Friday morning groups who celebrated their midyear function at the Mornington Inn on Bastille Day which also coincided with John Foale's birthday (nah he couldn't really be recently retired could he!!!). Even the chef was looking through the glass partition when the birthday song rang out!

Why were we at the Mornington Inn you might ask. Well the Shoreline is having renovations done to the dining area so was not available and John Gericke heard the MI was doing senior meals (2 courses) for only $14 a head- cheapskate!!! A great day was had by all.

If you have any photos/story of a function you are having email to me at sunshinetennis.tasmania@gmail.com and to catch up on all the latest go to the website at <http://www.sunshinetennisclub.org.au/> which has a link to our facebook page. Please like and share

On the left the group at the long table making most of the noise!! and on the right John Foale receiving congratulations from Yvonne Trevaskis, David Evans, Brian May and John Gericke.
