DICKSON TENNIS nominated for Coach of the YEAR.

David Dickson and Kat Kelly making up the team of Dickson Tennis have been nominated for Coach of the Year by myself.

After being at Sunshine Tennis Club for three and a half years and having seen up close what a difference they have made for junior tennis at the club and the vast improvement some of our adult players who have sought out their coaching skills have made, they would be worthy winners.

If you would like to support David and Kat and attend the awards night in Launceston on Saturday 31st August , let me know and perhaps we can make up a table of 10 and hence get the lower cost of $60 per head rather than $70 (18 years of age and under tickets $35).

See the following details and ring me on 0400 974 056 if you would like to attend as a group.

Junior Development Series Tournament:

STC successfully hosted the JDS block on Sunday 9 June. The tournament was well-attended, with match play completed on all 6 courts. Kat Kelly is commended for her hard work in promoting, organising and directing the tournament.

STC volunteers were kept busy for much of the day in the Clubroom kitchen and on the BBQ. A small profit, nett of purchases of food supplies and contribution towards tournament running costs (trophies, tennis balls etc), was realised for the Club.

At the last committee meeting thanks were extended to the Club volunteers for their valued work in catering for the tournament.

Entertainment Books

The clubs thanks go to Alanna Rolph for all her hard work in securing sales of nearly 50 Entertainment Books which must be a record for the club.

Remember it is not too late to order a book - just ring Alanna on 0438 395 494 or Email drarolph@gmail.com.

Books cost $70 a copy. (We got $34 value on Saturday by having a two for one lunch at the Black Buffalo - Ed).
